COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—Jasper Dolby, the negro captured at Washington C. H. to be taken to Columbus, where he will spend the next 30 years of his life.

The crowd followed the troops, but no more was made to reason or in any way to the prisoner. The train pulled out at 4:10 p. m., having on board the prisoner, Dolby, in charge of Sheriff Cook of this county. The second battalion of the Fourteenth Infantry, in command of Major Holman, acted as a guard.

Nothing of interest occurred en route here. The prisoner was taken from the train at Dennison, where he was taken to the Union station, and walked to the prison, one wall of which is on the avenue. The military remained in the cars and were carried to the Union station. All troops have left Washington C. H.

The prisoner stated to the penitentiary officials that he was not guilty, but had entered a plea of guilty because he had been informed that he was to be hanged, and that this was the only way to escape with his life. He claimed never to have been arrested or charged with the slightest infraction of law.

Dr. Irwin, in making the physical examination, said Dolby's legs were paralyzed, and his heart fluttered as a result of his scare. The fact in this case is that he was clearly identified by his victims.

At Washington C. H., Oct. 18.—Washington C. H. is as quiet as though nothing had happened. The withdrawal of the last detachment of soldiers with their implements of death acted like a soothing potion upon the half-rattled populace. From that hour the excitement rapidly subsided.

Just before the troops left the death of G. W. Johnson, one of the men, as the reporter called him, was announced. He was shot in the stomach and lived at Kyles, Butler county, O.

Every train brought relatives and friends of the killed and wounded, and upon these the citizens lavished every attention. George W. and E. C. Sams, father and brother of William Sams, arrived about noon, and from Athens, where the wounded man's bedside a few minutes before he breathed his last, Sams' death adds a fourth to Wednesday night's victims.

There is still much feeling against Sheriff Cook. It is probable that criminal and civil proceedings will be instituted by relatives of some of the victims. Beyond this and the remorse of Wednesday night's awful scenes the Dolby riot is a thing of the past, and the good people here are thanking God that it was no worse.

The following is a complete list of the dead and those whose wounds demand medical attention:

The dead are:
Smith, John, aged 14.
Jesse Jody, aged 35.
Black Johnson, aged 23.
William A. Sams, aged 35.

Royalists Will Soon Attempt to Restore Liliuokalani.

RETURN OF HER EMISSARIES

They Have Reported to Her That the United States Would Remain Neutral in Event of a Revolution—Royalists Preparing Arms in England—Advices by the Darkening America.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 18.—The burkentine America from Honolulu brings news that Queen Liliuokalani's emissaries in Washington City, Parker and Wideman, had returned with post-squal assurances from Secretary of State Sherman, that in the event of another revolution in Hawaii, the United States government would remain neutral.

The Vanu of the America was told by Samuel Parker that similar assurances had been received from Admiral Walker of the Philadelphia. This news was very generally circulated through the island and caused a feeling that hostilities between the royalists and revolutionists might be resumed at any time. The royalists, who are now in the Vanu, are very busy with their arms and money with which they hope to inaugurate a revolution. The opinion prevails in Honolulu that the queen has a representative in Europe.

Nothing was known in the islands about her contemplated suit against the United States government for $2,000,000 for the loss of the throne.

Captain Ward believes the royalists will attempt to restore her to power before long and prophesies the next revolution will be not altogether bloodless.

FITZSIMMONS SIGNS.

According to This Dispatch There May Be a Fight After All.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—It is reported that Fitzsimmons signed the articles of agreement for a fight with Corbett yesterday. When he and Corbett met last week both agreed to the articles which governed the Corbett-Sullivan match, but when Fitzsimmons got to Philadelphia as objected to some of the conditions.

In the articles the appointment of a referee was to be left to the club. Fitzsimmons refused to allow the club to have all the say and wanted a referee inserted which should give the principals of the fight the right to declare whether or not they would be satisfied with the referee selected.

Corbett, it seems, consented to the addition of this clause. Corbett also agreed to the new articles as prepared by Captain John Fitzsimmons.

By striking out all reference to The Police Gazette and consenting to have the weight of the gloves five ounces.

TRAIN ROBBER IN COURT

Seary's Preliminary Trial Postponed Until Saturday.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 18.—J. Seary, arrested for the Virginia train robbery, was brought before Judge Hoffman at 4 o'clock yesterday for examination. Lawyer Thomas A. Baltimore represented the Adams Express company, and requested postponement of the hearing until Saturday. The prisoner's counsel, Messrs. Richmond and MacBeth, offered no objection, the request was granted and the hearing set down for Saturday at 4 o'clock.

It has been ascertained that Seary pawned jewelry at two shops in Washington on the 27th of September. At one place he disposed of a lady's small gold watch of Elgin make, with a man's chain attached, giving the name of Charles T. Arlington and his address as the office of the Washington and Georgetown Railroad company. They got out about eight miles, when their horse gave out and they had to stop. The Toledo Blade of last evening contains the following regarding the Peck Drug Company, of that place, of which C. E. Walker and Dr. Harley were to be shareholders.

The Toledo Drug Company has drifted out of existence. The company was organized recently, and Samuel Young built a store for its use on Summit street. The stockholders disagreed, and the Peck Drug Company was formed. Colonel Walker became a stockholder, and the name was again changed to the Toledo Drug Company.

Misunderstandings arose and the stockholders refused to go on. One of the latter said to the Blade a drug company may be formed in the spring. It is rumored that a few lawsuits will result from the various disagreements.

KILLMAN'S TRIAL.

Had Before a Jury in the Mayor's Court To-day.

A Large Number of Witnesses Examined—Some of the Testimony Introduced at the Hearing.

The case of the State against assassin Fred Killman, who was charged last Saturday night, when his place in the Kell block was raided, with conducting a house of ill fame, was heard before Mayor Smiley to-day, commencing at 9 o'clock, and on account of the mayor's office being too small to accommodate the large number of witnesses and spectators, the council chamber was temporarily converted into a court room.

The jury in the case consisted of Messrs. A. J. Lowry, H. F. Whitney, J. B. Young, Daniel Shoppel, George McQuire, J. W. Fetzer, C. W. Parker, L. J. Smith, William Smith, E. J. Maguire and James Laogan.

The defense was represented by attorneys Copeland, Sanford and Badger, and the State by city solicitor Adgate and prosecuting attorney Eldon.

After the jury qualified and the witnesses, numbering about twenty-five, sworn, Myrtle Crosson was called to the stand. She stated that she had visited Killman's place. Had seen young men and women drink beer together in the place, in the wine room. There were four wine rooms in the place. The women entered the place through the rear door.

Mrs. Cal Crosson said she visited Killman's place three or four times a week and drank beer in the wine rooms. Saw men and women in the rooms together.

Jessie Morrison had visited the place frequently. Said she saw Adie Klig and Mrs. Crosson and her daughter there. She had sat in the wine rooms with different men; had drank beer in the rooms, and had sat in a stall probably an hour and a half at a time. Didn't have time to see what was going on in the other stalls. The doors, she said, wouldn't stay fastened.

Addie Klig was called and stated that she had been in all the rooms with different men. She didn't know their names. Persons in the stalls could fasten the doors on the inside if they desired. She did not know of the house being resorted to as a house of ill fame.

The case was still in progress at 3:30 o'clock.

FORMER-LIMA MAN

Among the Citizens Shot At Washington, C. H.

Frank L. Nitterhouse, an Old Time Resident of Lima, Fatally Wounded.

Frank L. Nitterhouse, one of the citizens who were shot in the repulse of the mob which broke into the court house at Washington, C. H., for the purpose of lynching Dolly, an account of which appeared in the Times-Democrat yesterday, was an old time resident of this city.

Judge Pillars remembers him well and said this morning that Mr. Nitterhouse lived here in about 1854, and was a wagon maker by occupation. He left Lima about the year above mentioned. He was shot in the left knee and left foot. A dispatch from Washington C. H. says of his condition:

The operation for the amputation of aged F. L. Nitterhouse's left leg at the knee was successful, but the doctors fear that he cannot sustain the necessary removal of his shattered right foot. If it is not done blood poisoning will follow. His advanced age of three score and ten is the most powerful factor against recovery. Death is looked for at any moment.

The aged victim is universally beloved and his friends are the bitterest in their denunciations of the troops. He, too, was across the street when wounded.

About 6 o'clock last evening, an east bound freight train No. 112, in charge of conductor J. E. Jeffries, of the L. E. & W., was leaving the yards in South Lima, a car left the track at the C. E. crossing, and ran over the ties to the coal dock before the train was stopped.

No damage was done except to delay east bound passenger train No. 2, about 45 minutes.

A LIMA GANG.

Arrested for Stealing Two Wagon Loads of Potatoes.

The Men Arrested at Harrod Yesterday Afternoon Are Wanted at Kanton.

The Times-Democrat yesterday contained the announcement of the arrest of several men at Harrod for potato stealing, and that they were thought to be Lima people. This morning the Kanton Democrat confirms the belief and says:

James Folk, Chas. Smith and John Parker, a trio from Lima, were before Mayor Detrick Thursday night on a charge of stealing two wagon loads of potatoes from Logan, Young & Co., who operate a large farm on the Scioto Marsh. The potatoes were found in the possession of the men, who were taking them to Lima to dispose of them. Messrs. Young & Co. have been missing potatoes for some time, but could never find any trace of the thieves. At one time they missed about eighty bushels. In all they have lost about 200 bushels.

Thursday morning a lot of potatoes were missed from their field. They saw the wagon tracks and with an officer started in pursuit. When within a few miles of Lima they overtook two wagons loaded with tubers, in all about seventy-two bushels, which Mr. S. E. Young recognized as his stock. They took the men in charge and brought them to Harrod, where they were locked up and affidavits charging them with the crime were prepared. The prisoners were brought here and given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Detrick. At the hearing James Folk, who appeared to be a man of some education, claimed he bought the potatoes from a man for twenty-five cents a bushel, but of the man he made the deal with. Folk conducts a kind of huckster shop in Lima. He and the other two fellows left Lima Wednesday evening with two wagons for the Marsh, where they arrived early Thursday morning. They drove to the potato field, loaded their wagons at dead of night and started back to Lima to dispose of them. When captured they virtually admitted to D. S. Selick, marshal of Harrod, and his deputy, M. Leatherman, who made the arrests, that they had stolen the potatoes. They said they were out of work and their families were starving, and they left Lima for the Marsh to take whatever they could find. Smith and Folk are brothers-in-law. Parker and Smith claimed to be in the employ of Folk and did not know the kind of work they were embarking in. They told very conflicting stories, and one of them admitted on the stand that he believed the tubers were stolen but that he had no hand in it. They evidently belong to a band of thieves that have been operating there for some time. One of the wagons and teams belonged to a liveryman in Lima from whom they borrowed it. The evidence against them was so overwhelming that the Mayor could do nothing else than hold them to appear before the Grand Jury. He fixed their bonds at $500 each which of course they were unable to furnish and were given over to Sheriff Ranney to care for. They stand a first class chance of getting a term in the penitentiary.
